Grammar: Object Pronouns

A pronoun is a substitute for a noun. An object pronoun is the object of the sentence. For example:

> Melinda put the flowers in a vase. noun

Melinda put them in a vase.

pronoun

Select an object pronoun that could take the place of the noun in each sentence.

him	her	them	it	us	me
	_			_
1	I bought a gift for Jaden and Jessie.
2.	Mrs. Osawa gave me an A on the test .
3.	Jody made a cake for Daniel .
4.	There's enough candy for both you and me .
5	Sylvie brought the trash can to the curb.
6	I really like the new clothes I got .
7	M	y brother a	nd I wer	nt to the sto	re.
8.	I need to take my dog Scrounger for her walk.
9.	We threw a surprise party for Timothy .
10	Give your empty plates to Jenny and Suzanna .					