

THE OWEN STUART'S CASE

Created By Marie-Camille LePage

OBSERVATION LOG

Look at the crime scene, analyze what you see and write down on the table below.

What do you see on the crime scene? (clue)

What does this clue mean? (inference)

SUSPECT LOG #1

Name:
Job:
Relationship with victim:
The alibi:
The motive:
Do you think this suspect is the culprit? Why?

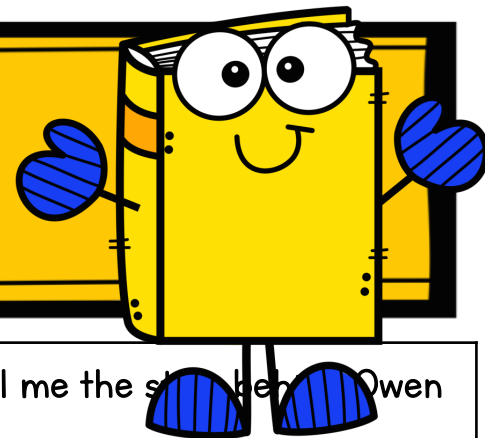

SUSPECT LO9 #2

Name:
Job:
Relationship with victim:
The alibi:
The motive:
Do you think this suspect is the culprit? Why?

IT'S A MYSTERY

Writing - Brainstorming

Now that you have observed the crime scene and record information. You need to tell me the story of Owen Stuart's murder. THIS IS YOUR PLAN.

The introduction

Introduce yourself as the detective and what you will investigate.

-
-

The setting

Include the following: date, time, location

-
-
-

The conflict:

Tell us through how the crime scene happened. How was Owen murdered?

Describe it in details. How did the culprit attack Owen? How did Owen react?

-
-
-
-

The resolution:

Who was found guilty? What were the clues that helped you solve the crime? What was their punishment?

-
-
-

THE OWEN STUART'S CASE

With the brainstorm above, write down what happened on the night of the crime.

