

Identifying Adjectives

Name: _____ Date: _____

Adjectives modify the meaning of nouns and pronouns. They describe which, whose, what kind and how many.

Example:

The hairy dog chewed on my favorite running shoes.

There are many adjectives in this sentence. The and hairy describe the dog, while my, favorite and running describe the shoes.

Seven words in English are always adjectives. These are the articles a, an and the, and the possessives my, our, your, and their.

Which word is an adjective in each sentence?

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| (1) Zachary brought some chocolate candies for his class.a. chocolate            c. candiesb. class                d. for (2) Five dollars will not buy much food.a. buy                    c. notb. much                d. dollars (3) Madeline took a quick peek in the front window to see if anyone was inside.a. Madeline            c. quickb. anyone             d. peek (4) Mr. White will be too busy to meet Friday morning.a. Friday                c. meetb. morning             d. too | (5) Can you give me two quarters and five dimes for this dollar?a. give                    c. fiveb. you                    d. dollar (6) The girl played some classical music on the grand piano.a. piano                  c. girlb. played                d. The (7) I want to get off this crazy roller coaster!a. I                        c. wantb. crazy                  d. coaster (8) The startled roaches scattered in all directions.a. scattered             c. inb. roaches                d. all |
|---|--|

Identifying Adjectives

ANSWER KEY

Adjectives modify the meaning of nouns and pronouns. They describe which, whose, what kind and how many.

Example:

The hairy dog chewed on my favorite running shoes.

There are many adjectives in this sentence. The and hairy describe the dog, while my, favorite and running describe the shoes.

Seven words in English are always adjectives. These are the articles a, an and the, and the possessives my, our, your, and their.

Which word is an adjective in each sentence?

- (1) Zachary brought some chocolate candies for his class.

☒ a. chocolate      c. candies
b. class      d. for

- (2) Five dollars will not buy much food.

a. buy      c. not ☒ b. much      d. dollars

- (3) Madeline took a quick peek in the front window to see if anyone was inside.

a. Madeline      ☒ c. quick
b. anyone      d. peek

- (4) Mr. White will be too busy to meet Friday morning.

☒ a. Friday      c. meet
b. morning      d. too

- (5) Can you give me two quarters and five dimes for this dollar?

a. give      ☒ c. five
b. you      d. dollar

- (6) The girl played some classical music on the grand piano.

a. piano      c. girl
b. played      ☒ d. The

- (7) I want to get off this crazy roller coaster!

a. I      c. want ☒ b. crazy      d. coaster

- (8) The startled roaches scattered in all directions.

a. scattered      c. in
b. roaches      ☒ d. all